We offer facility for Training of Enzyme Assay, Enzyme Assay Kit and Analysis of Enzyme samples used in sugar processing and distillery.

The enzymes used during sugar processing for removal of starch, dextran and other polysaccharides viz. Alpha Amylase, Glucoamylase, Dextranase, Cellulase are standardised in our R & D Laboratory. The Invertase enzyme used during fermentation of sugarcane molasses is also estimated for its catalytic efficiency

The enzyme analysis kit is also available for assay of commercial enzyme activity at laboratory level for sugar processing and distillery enzymes. We offer training for enzyme activity assay.

The Deccan Sugar Technologists' Association (India), Pune

The association was established in the year 1936 under able guidance of Seth Lalchand Hirachand, who was closely associated with Sugar Industry. In those days, machinery for sugar plants used to be imported and it was a great task to understand and operate the sugar plant and machinery. The farming practices of Sugar Cane cultivations were also in the development stage.

To coordinate activities a common platform was rendered by DSTA covering the states of Maharashtra, Gujarat and Karnataka.

In March 2014 association has started a state of the art research and development activities in laboratory, to help the sugar industries with the required instrumental facilities for analysis of various samples like sugar, molasses, general & industrial waste water, potable water, bio-com post, soil, resins, activated carbon, biocides, sugar processing and distillery enzymes etc.

We take up R & D projects on boiler water treatment, waste water treatment for the benefit of value addition of sugar factories. For this purpose, laboratory has procured latest and high precision equipment as well as has appointed skilled laboratory staff.
